

Notice of Public Solicitation of Prospective Transferee for Equity Interest in Dii GmbH

China Electric Power Research Institute (“CEPRI”, hereinafter the “Transferor”) currently holds a 20% equity interest in Dii GmbH, a company incorporated in Germany (hereinafter the “Target Company”). For its own operational reasons, the Transferor intends to transfer, in accordance with applicable law, all of the equity interest it holds in the Target Company, and hereby publicly solicits prospective transferees. The relevant matters are announced as follows:

1. Subject of Transfer

A 20% equity interest in the Target Company held by the Transferor, together with all shareholder rights and obligations attached thereto.

2. Eligibility Requirements for Prospective Transferees

1. Be a legal entity or other organization duly incorporated and validly existing, with good commercial standing and payment capability;
2. Possess the financial strength required to acquire the equity interest and be able to pay the transfer consideration as agreed;
3. Ensure that the acquisition complies with the relevant laws and regulations of the Federal Republic of Germany and the People’s Republic of China, and is able to obtain (where required) the approval or filing of the competent authorities;
4. Accept the current articles of association of the Target Company and the relevant shareholder arrangements;
5. Be free of any circumstance that would, under applicable laws and regulations or the articles of association of the Target Company, prevent it from becoming a shareholder.

3. Method of Transfer and Pricing

The pricing of this equity transfer shall be based on the asset valuation result that has been approved or filed. The final transferee and the transaction price shall be determined in accordance with the solicitation results and the relevant procedures.

4. Registration of Interest and Submission of Documents

Prospective transferees shall submit the following documents within the solicitation period: (i) proof of legal status; (ii) a letter of intent to acquire; and (iii) evidence of financial capability. Documents shall be sent to the contact details below.

5. Solicitation Period

Twenty (20) business days from the date of publication of this Notice, i.e. until July 6th, 2026.

6. Contact

Contact Person: Fu Xiangning

Telephone: 861082812594

E-mail: fuxiangning@epri.sgcc.com.cn

7. Miscellaneous

This solicitation does not constitute any offer. The Transferor reserves the right to review the qualifications of prospective transferees, to adjust the solicitation conditions, and to extend or terminate this solicitation process. The Transferor reserves the right of final interpretation of this Notice.

China Electric Power Research Institute

Date: June 9th, 2026